Details

The Glide collection offers a refined upgrade to everyday cooling with pedestal and wall fan options designed for quiet, energy-efficient performance. Crafted with full steel construction and powered by an advanced DC motor, these fans operate with significantly reduced noise – making them ideal for bedrooms, living rooms and shared spaces.
Available in white or black, both the pedestal and wall models come with a 6-speed control system using the integrated button panel. With a clean, modern design and mid-range positioning, the Glide fans deliver practical comfort with a polished finish, backed by a 2-year warranty.
