Details

The Reid light pendant is a sleek and elegant design ideal for any interior space. It is a high-quality lighting fixture available in a brass finish with matte opal glass shades.
The design of the Reid light pendant is inspired by natural reeds, combining organic shapes with the striking beauty of aged brass. The 2 and 3 light configurations offer a dramatic yet graceful look, with asymmetric arms that appear to drape effortlessly. The 1 light configuration is a compact and versatile solution that is perfect for use in bedrooms, powder rooms, and island benches.
Embracing the off-centre nature of this organic-inspired collection, the 2-light linear variant is an exceptional statement piece that is ideal for use in island benches and dining tables. Its unique design and organic shape make it a perfect choice for those looking to elevate their interior design and lighting aesthetics, though please note that this pendant is not suitable for angled ceilings without a pitch corrector block.
Explore exceptional functionality and exquisite design with this beautiful and sophisticated lighting solution.
