Details

The Bellini Collection epitomises timeless elegance through its design, featuring brass arms that gracefully extend to support spherical glass shades. This blend of simplicity and sophistication ensures that each piece within the collection adds a touch of refined beauty to any setting.

Offering flexibility in application, the collection comes in a 3-light option, ideal for adding a cosy glow to smaller spaces such as hallways and bedrooms. The more expansive 5-light version provides ample illumination for larger areas, making it a perfect fit for living rooms and dining areas.

In terms of colour options, the timeless brass finish with white glass shades creates a classic, versatile look suitable for a wide range of decors. For those inclined towards a retro vibe, the bronze finish with sepia glass shades leans into the mid-century aesthetic, offering warmth and a nostalgic charm to any space. In essence, the Bellini Collection stands as a versatile and stylish choice, capable of bringing both light and a sense of timeless or mid-century charm to your home, depending on your chosen finish.
