Haus & Co LED Candles in Travertine

Elevate your home with Haus & Co LED candles in travertine. Handcrafted from authentic stone, these candles are available in natural, rose, or silver travertine, each showcasing the material's unique veining and organic textures. No two pieces are alike, ensuring a one-of-a-kind accent for your bedside tables, coffee tables, or bookshelves. Powered by 2x AA batteries (not included) and featuring a discreet on/off switch on the base, these LED candles combine convenience with beauty. Their warm, ambient glow creates a serene atmosphere while highlighting the exquisite details of the natural stone.

TIP: Pair with other natural materials, such as travertine or marble accessories, for a cohesive and luxurious look that celebrates organic beauty.
