Details

The Lucci Marine outdoor light is a modern and stylish lighting solution that's perfect for coastal installations. Made from high-quality 316 stainless steel, this light is built to withstand the harsh conditions of seaside environments, including saltwater and high winds. With an IP66 rating, it's designed to last and provide reliable illumination.

Featuring a minimalist design, the Lucci Marine light provides a warm and inviting glow that's perfect for outdoor spaces. Its up and down lighting feature creates a stunning effect on tall walls and columns, making it ideal for architectural use. The light uses two GU10 globes and can be easily installed near the seaside, ocean, and pools.

Overall, the Lucci Marine outdoor light is a great choice for anyone looking for a durable and stylish lighting solution for their coastal property. Its high-quality stainless steel construction, minimalist design, and up and down lighting feature make it an excellent choice for any outdoor space.
