

Sentinel 12V Eyelid Steplight in Black

SKU: 220309

Details

The Sentinel 12V Eyelid Steplight provides subtle, directional illumination, ideal for outdoor steps, pathways, retaining walls and landscaped areas. Featuring an eyelid design that directs light downwards to help minimise glare, it accommodates an MR16 globe, allowing you to customise the lighting to suit your outdoor space. Part of the 12V garden lighting range, it is compatible with a DIY quick connector for a simple, watertight connection. Available in Black and Marine-Grade Stainless Steel finishes.
