Details

The Sunset Solar Dela solar wall light combines security lighting and everyday convenience in a compact, modern design. Featuring an integrated solar panel, motion sensor and replaceable battery, it provides a simple wire-free lighting solution for entryways, garages, courtyards and side access areas. Constructed from aluminium and polycarbonate, the Sunset Solar Dela is IP65 rated and coastal rated for reliable outdoor performance. Three selectable sensor modes allow you to choose between constant low-level illumination, motion-activated lighting or a combination of both to suit different applications. The integrated LED delivers up to 300 lumens of daylight white light, while the solar-powered design eliminates the need for mains wiring. With an 8-metre motion detection range and easy DIY installation, it offers a practical solution for improving visibility and security around the home.
