The perfect setting

Our Tatum collection was designed to complement our wide range of lamps, pendants and homewares. Both the black and white options have a matte textured finish that elevates the minimalist aesthetic and helps soften the appearance of the hard surfaces.

The side table option is ideal for nooks and besides - the perfect home for a minimalist lamp and a good book.

The Coffee Table option is compact and low, making it the ideal choice for smaller living spaces and providing a fantastic setting to house your favourite Haus & Co candles.

The Tatum collection was also designed to nestle into one another to create the perfect side table nest, providing differing heights to create intrigue in any space.
