Traviato Wall Sconce

The Traviato wall sconce brings bold, minimalist design to life with its striking up-and-down light effect, creating an architectural play of illumination. Crafted from solid lava stone, this two-light fixture features a deep black aesthetic with subtle metal accents, making a dramatic and textural statement in any space. The natural material's unique graining and texture ensure every piece is one of a kind, adding individuality and depth to your interior.

Perfect for entryways, hallways, mantels, or bedside installations, the Traviato sconce's sculptural form and natural warmth enhance contemporary interiors with a refined yet bold presence. Its dual-light design offers both functionality and visual intrigue. For a softer look, it's also available in travertine with bronze details, providing versatility to suit your style.

TIP: Use the Traviato wall sconce in pairs for symmetry and dramatic impact, or let a single piece command attention with its bold, sculptural beauty.
